Program Information

The international undergraduate programs that open for admission are:

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES
CHIANG MAI UNIVERSITY

Bachelor of Arts in Humanities and Sustainability (International Program)

BA Humanities and Sustainability (BAHS) program has been designed with a belief in human potential, potential that can be discovered and managed for future uses. Unlike other BA programs in the humanities and arts faculties in Thailand, which limit expertise to specific areas, the BAHS program equips students with a breadth of knowledge in the human arts and sciences. This knowledge allows them to explore, mix and match, and develop their own unique academic and professional skill sets.

TCAS code of conduct on "Offer Acceptance" for Thai applicants in all programs.

Chiang Mai University International Program Admission System (CMU-IPAS) is the admission system for international programs offered by Chiang Mai University for Thai applicants and international applicants. CMU-IPAS is an independent system from the Thai University Central Admission System (TCAS), CMU-IPAS adopts the same code of conduct on "Offer Acceptance" for TCAS lead by the Council of University Presidents of Thailand (CUPT). Here are procedures regarding the code conduct:

1. Once admission results have been made, a successful applicant must reply to offers in both systems: CMU-IPAS and TCAS in specific time frames for each Round listed in the table below. If a candidate fails to do so, this will be considered as the "Decline ALL offers".
2. For each reply to the offer, a candidate can accept ONLY ONE faculty/field of study out of the list of Offers.
3. A candidate has only 3 counts to be able to change the acceptance on preferred faculty/field of study upon available offers. The counting starts at the first time the candidate making acceptance. Each candidate can turn down an allocated spot just twice but the change must be made within the designated time frame, this counts as the second. The third time will be the final and it cannot be changed anymore except to "Decline ALL offers".
4. Once a confirmed acceptance has been made, the candidate is not eligible to apply to the next available Round(s). If needed, he/she must decline – on the other hand – revoke his/her acceptance in order to be eligible to apply to the upcoming round of admission. All transaction of acceptance or decline must be done within the designated time frame.

The table below includes specific time frames for each Round:

Schedule	Round 1	Round 2	Round 3
Programs	HS, TFL, ECON, IEL, ISNE, ME, DIN, ES, FST, IDEA, MMIT, SE	HS, SSSD, TFL, ECON, IEL, ISNE, ME, NSC, DIN, ES, FST, IDEA, MMIT, SE	SSSD, ECON, DIN, ES, FST, ACC
Registration in TCAS	October 28, 2022 onward

TCAS AND IPAS FOR THAI APPLICANTS ONLY

Thai applicants must accept to offers in both systems (CMU-IPAS and TCAS) in specific time frames for each round.

Important: Only Thai applicants are required to register and accept the offer in TCAS at <https://student.mytcas.com/>. The Thai successful candidate status in all programs will be automatically declined for those who confirmed the official offer from another program or another university in the TCAS system.

Registration in CMU-IPAS is one-time procedure for all admission's rounds. In some round, if you wish to apply for more than one program (or choose a program by mistake, or change your mind), you need to re-register again with a different email address.

All Thai applicants and those who have two or more citizenship in which one of them is Thai are required to register in TCAS before process to the CMU-IPAS. Once get accepted, they are also required to reply the offer in BOTH TCAS and CMU-IPAS systems. Failure to do so will result in termination of the offering and will not be able to register as a Chiang Mai University student.

To register for CMU-IPAS, take the following steps:

1. Obtain your Thai University Central Admission System's Identification (TCAS ID) from <https://student.mytcas.com/>. Registration in TCAS is a one-time process for each applicant, all information must be corrected and official.
2. If you already have TCAS-ID, you may input it now for the identity's verification before registering in our CMU-IPAS.
3. After our system recognizes your TCAS account, you will be able to create your CMU-IPAS account. You will need to input your email address and password for communication from CMU-IPAS, the same email address with TCAS is preferable, but not necessary.

Thai applicant registration

Thai applicants are required to register TCAS before processing to the CMU-IPAS. Once you get CMU-IPAS acceptance, you must accept the offer in BOTH the TCAS and CMU-IPAS systems. Failure to do so will result to decline automatically.
