

Chiang Mai University Announcement

Subject: English Standardized Test Score Equivalence for Exemption from Fundamental English Courses

CMU Students who meet the required English standardized test score results will be eligible for exemption from the specified Fundamental English courses and will be evaluated according to Item 16.4 (2) of Chiang Mai University Regulations on Undergraduate Study B.E. 2553 (2010), B.E. 2561 (2018), and B.E. 2566 (2023). Chiang Mai University, hereby announces the equivalent scores for the exemption from the specified Fundamental English courses as follows:

1. This announcement becomes effective from the second semester of Academic Year 2026 onwards.

2. Announcement of Faculty of Humanities, Chiang Mai University on English Standardized Test Score Equivalence for Exemption from Fundamental English Courses dated on 9th May 2566 B.E. (2023) is now superseded.

3. Students with the following standardized test scores can be exempted from the Fundamental English courses specified as follows.

English Standardized Test Score Results	Exempted Fundamental English Courses	Remarks
TOEFL IBT 60 or up OR TOEFL ITP 513 or up OR IELTS Academic overall 5.5 or up OR CMU TEGS 55 or up	ENGL101 (001101) and ENGL102 (001102)	Grades for exempted courses will be recorded as CS (Credit from Standardized Tests)

4. To be granted an exemption from ENGL101 (001101) and ENGL102 (001102) students have to submit a request form via the Registration Office website. Click menu: Credit Transfer/Equivalent Credit Transfer. (<https://www1.reg.cmu.ac.th/reg-transfer/>)

5. Transfer of study results shall be complied with other relevant announcements.

Please be notified accordingly.

Announced on July ..22., 2026

Usanee Kumprakob

(Assoc. Prof. Usanee Kumprakob, M.Sc.)

Vice President

On behalf of the President of Chiang Mai University