

Announcement
Faculty of Humanities
Chiang Mai University
Equivalent Scores for Exemption from Korean Courses

CMU students who meet the required Korean standardized test score will be eligible for exemption from Korean courses and will be evaluated according to Item 16.4 (2), Chiang Mai University Regulations of the 2018 undergraduate study program. The Faculty of Humanities, Chiang Mai University hereby announces the equivalent scores for the exemption as follows:

1. The Faculty of Humanities, Chiang Mai University Announcement on a Korean Proficiency Test Score Equivalence for an Exemption of Korean Courses dated on 14th October 2021 is now superseded.

2. Students with the following Korean standardization test scores can be exempted from Korean fundamental courses.

2.1 Student with the Korean language standardization test in TOPIK level 1 or higher are eligible for exemption from KOR 103 (026103).

2.2 Student with the Korean language standardization test in TOPIK level 2 or higher are eligible for exemption from KOR 104 (026104).

3. Grades for exempted courses will be recorded as CS (Credits from Standardized tests).

Please be notified accordingly.

Announced on February⁷..... , 2023.

Signed Pongsak Rattanawong
(Asst. Prof. Pongsak Rattanawong)
Assistant Dean of Academic Affairs